LITERACY BOOK STUDIES

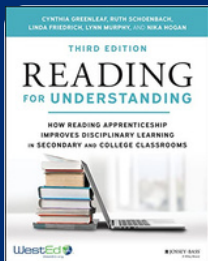

Louisa Cook Moats

K-5 Literacy Book Study: Speech to Print by Dr. Louisa Moats

By learning about early language development and connecting to higher forms of language in reading and writing, Speech to Print book study participants will learn about and discuss practical application of the fundamentals of structured literacy instruction for all students. Louisa Moats is the co-developer of LETRS Training and is a leading expert on brain research and how humans learn to read.

Karen Ten Napel and Holly Herriges will be offering this 8-week professional learning book study beginning September 3rd, 2024.

Secondary ELA Book Study: Reading for Understanding: How Reading Apprenticeship Improves Disciplinary Learning in Secondary and College Classrooms, 3rd Edition by Greenleaf, et al.

The newly revised Third Edition of this invaluable adolescent literacy text contains strategies for boosting the reading independence of middle, secondary, and college students. The authors teach a clear and concise instructional framework for students at all learning levels, with collaboration tips that go beyond the classroom and advice on building a cognitive “reading toolbox,” this book is an indispensable resource for educators and leaders at Grade 6 and up.

Lauren Spenceley will be offering this 8-week professional learning book study beginning September 5th, 2024.
