

2025 Indigenous STEM Project

STEM Symposium

Sunday, April 27 to Monday, April 28

Venue: Arizona Science Center

April 27 - 5pm to 8pm

NEW! Welcome event featuring dinner, facilitated activities, and keynote address.

Keynote Speaker:

Karletta Chief, Ph.D.
Professor & Extension Specialist, Department of Environmental Studies, University of Arizona

April 28 - 9am to 4pm

Includes Welcome session, 3 breakout sessions, lunch, and resource fair! Free STEM materials provided.

Who should attend?

PreK-12 Educators

Why should you attend?

- Professional learning that centers on serving Native American students
- Evidence-based practices and strategies that positively impact academic outcomes
- Networking
- 6 Continuing education credits
- Free event!

FREE

To register, visit:

<https://www.azed.gov/oie/professional-learning-resources>

Arizona Science Center: 600 W. Washington St., Phoenix, AZ 85004

Questions: indianeducation@azed.gov | Website

